

Embracing Differentiation –

an examination of the many ways to distinguish your practice/firm from the competition. Includes discussions of the Blue Ocean Strategy and Brand development.

Specifically, how can these techniques be used to provide a unique firm presence and drive a compelling product/service set that renders the competition irrelevant. This is typically a 50 minute presentation.